The 1954 TIGER'S LAIR

Published by

THE SENIOR CLASS

TERRELL HIGH SCHOOL

1953 - 1954

Many long hours of hard work have been spent by the staff in an effort to bring you the best annual ever published from Terrell High School.

These pages are the mere attempts of individuals to depict student life as you remember it.

If, in future years, this book brings back one flash of pleasant memories, efforts will have not been in vain, and this book will have been a success.

THE EDITORS

Adele Larst
James Huffman

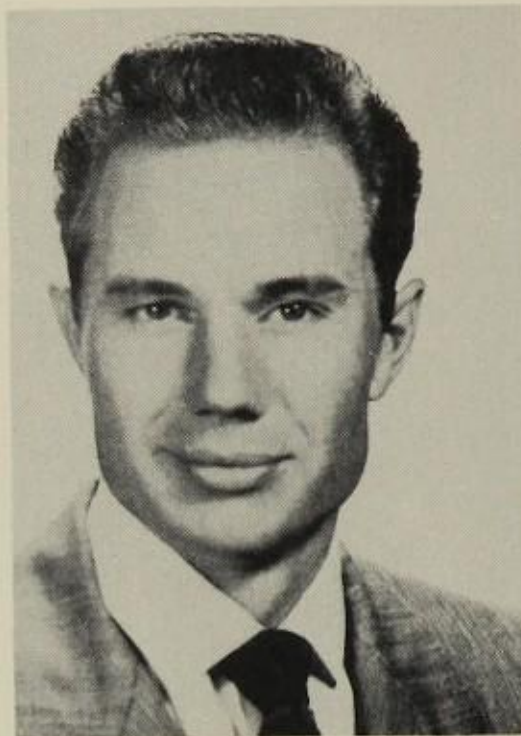

TO THE STUDENTS:

In asking yourselves what high school has meant to you during your years as a student here, I would like to quote from one who has already considered the values of high school training. As he sees it these values are (1) the increase of your learning, (2) the ripening of your thinking, and (3) the refinement of your living.

I wish to compliment the editors and staff of the TIGER'S LAIR for so accurately portraying the spirit of Terrell High School in this publication. The splendid prospects for the future and the forward look have been excellently portrayed. My congratulations to each of you.

J. H. Compton

J. H. Compton
Principal

There are two big divisions as to types of teachers as we see them. The first type meets his classes, assigns work and gives grades. The other type, who is far better, gives not only of his learning, knowledge, and techniques but of himself.

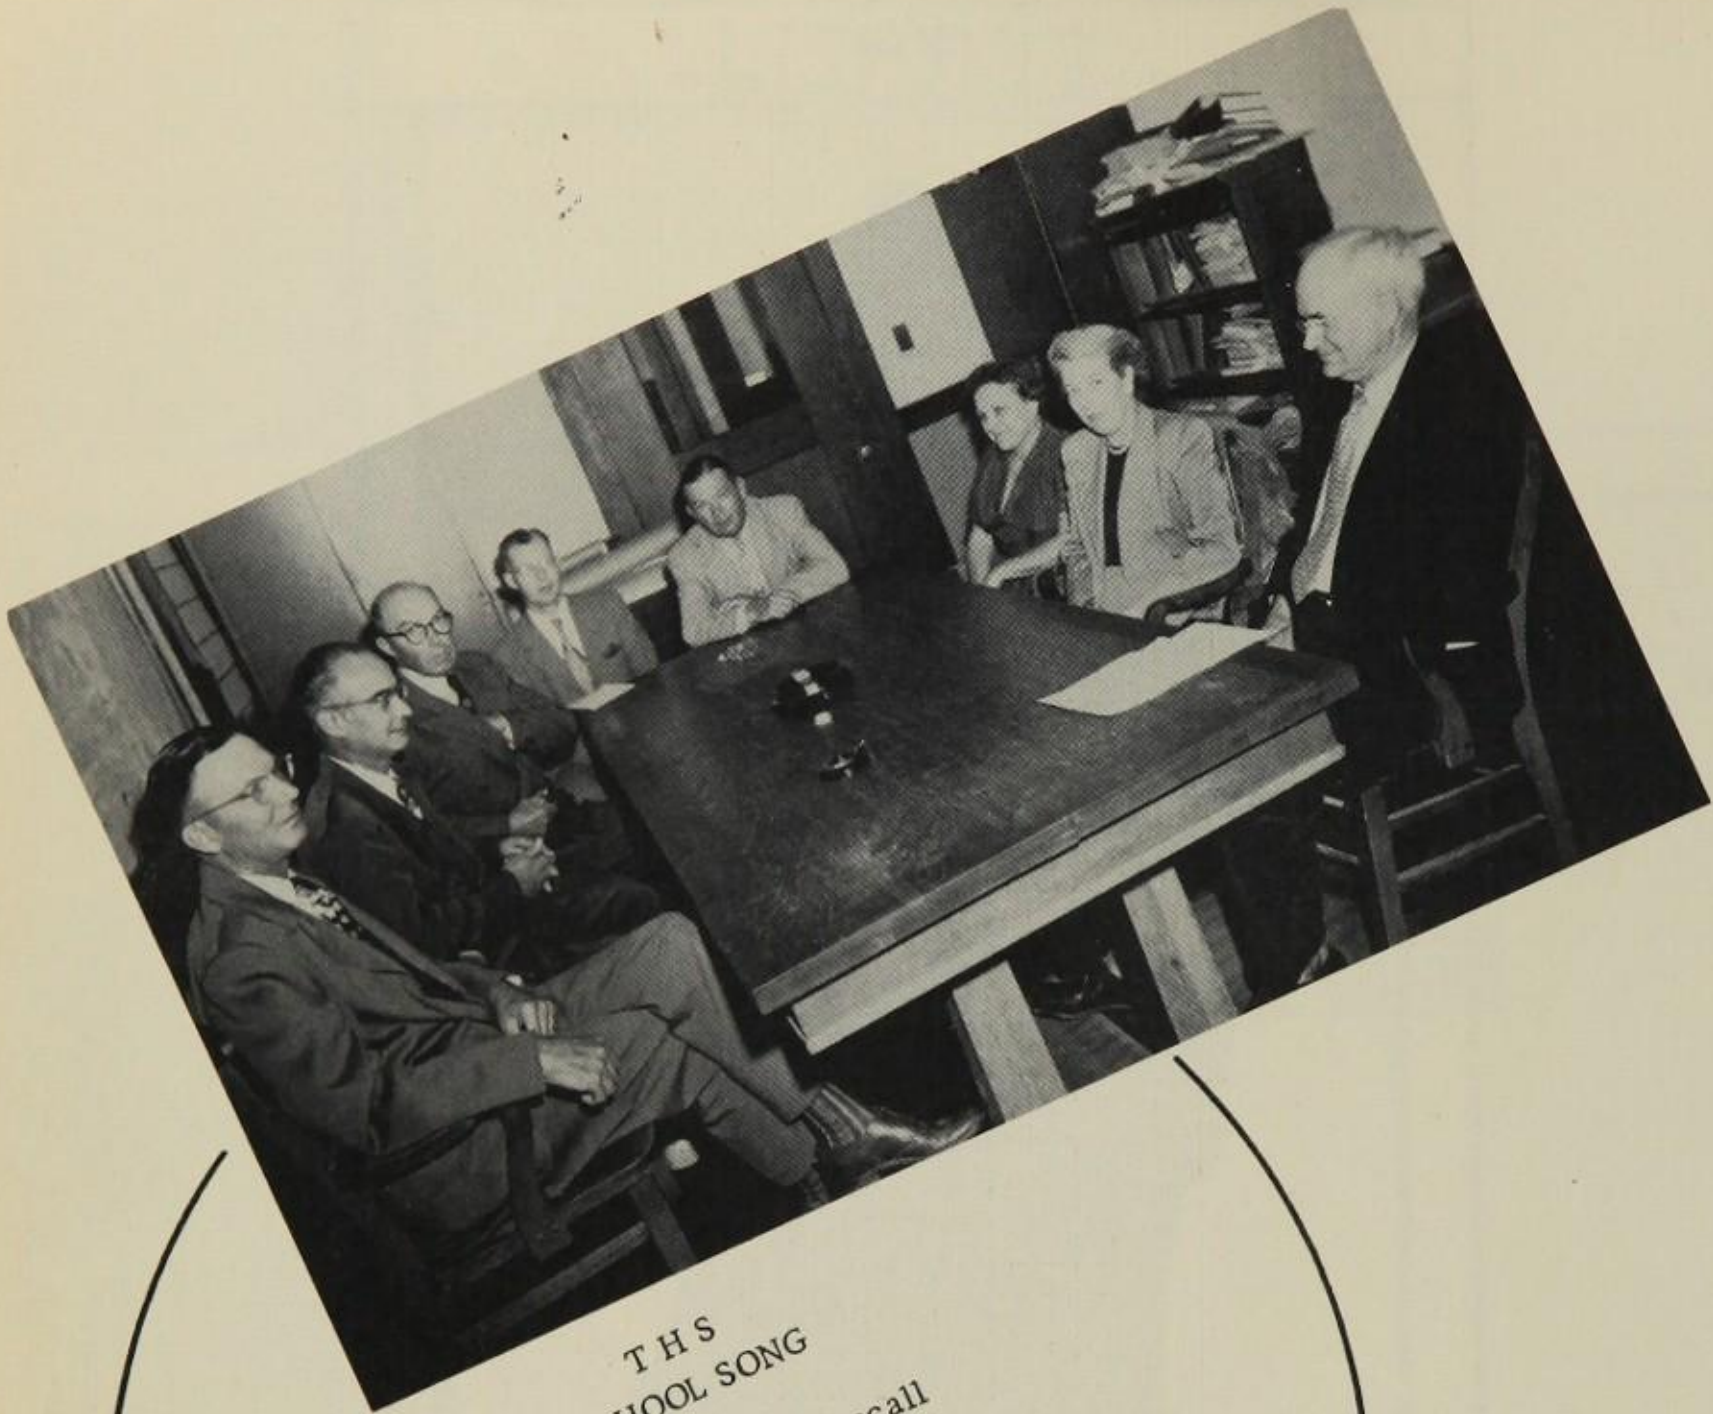

Because Coach Toler falls into this second type and because of his untiring efforts for the benefit of our class and our school, these past years, we dedicate this, The 1954 TIGER'S LAIR, to him.

The Terrell Tigers, defending State Champs, were defeated in the Regional play-offs by a fired up Henderson team.

The Tigers, however, set a record for consecutive games won by a high school team. The record stood at 25, and the Tigers raised it to 26.

The coaches--Head Coach Leon Vineyard, Assistant Coaches Rick Toler, Jack Harris, C.E. Lea, and Harvey Crittenden--were main factors in the success of the Tigers.

Give a cheer, Give a cheer,
 For the boys that brew the beer
 In the cellars of old Terrell Hi
 They are brave, They are bold,
 And the whiskey they can hold
 Is a story that's never been told
 For it's guzzle, guzzle, guzzle,
 As it trickles down your muzzle
 Call ~~out~~ out your brand strong & loud
 While you're rolling in the floor
 There stands Compton at the door
 In the cellars of old Terrell Hi.
